

Shetland Islands Council

DSG(2011)C225

COMARE 14th Annual Report on incidence of childhood leukaemia around nuclear power plants in Great Britain

The purpose of this paper is to present members with a critique of the recent COMARE report and a brief outline of some of the critical responses it has received.

The first things to accept when considering different epidemiological studies are the complexity of the